Wangchuck Arrives Today Amid Talks of Bhutan-China Deal

India is keeping a close eye as border negotiations gain momentum

> DipanjanRoy.Chaudhury @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Bhutan King Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck will arrive on an official visit to India on Friday. His visit, which will last a week, will be his second trip to India this year signifying decades-old special relationship.

During the visit, the King of Bhutan will meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi in New Delhi and visit the states of Assam and Maharashtra. The visit assumes significance in the backdrop of Bhutan's foreign minister's visit to China to expedite boundary deals and momentum in the Sino-Bhutanese ties.

India is keeping a close eye as Bhutan-China negotiations are picking momentum towards a boundary settlement deal.

Last month, Member of the Political Bureau of the CPC Central Committee and foreign minister Wang Yi met with foreign minister of Bhutan Dr Tandi Dorji, who was in China to hold the China-Bhutan boundary talks. China has asked Bhutan to form."

In the last meeting, Wang remy of the Himalayan nation. portedly told Dorji that restora-Bhutan and China will serve the countries.

has conveyed to Bhutan against making compromises on sensitive issues like the Doklam corridor and that the boundary pact should not in any way impact India's national interests. In 2017 India and China were locked in a standoff over Doklam for two This will be historic because it

India-US 2+2 Meet to Focus on Indo-Pacific Region

US President's proposed India trip to attend Quad summit and Republic Day in January also to be discussed

DipanjanRoy.Chaudhury @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: India and the US will hold their next 2+2 (foreign & defence) ministerial dialogue here next week to prepare for President Joe Biden's proposed New Delhi trip for the Quad summit and Republic Day celebrations in January, and review the developments in West Asia and the Indo-Pacific re-

AS CHIEF GUEST Biden has been invited by PM Modi for the Republic Day celebrations in New Delhi on January 26 next year

During his visit, US secretary of state Antony Blinken will be accompanied by defence secretary Lloyd Austin and they will meet external affairs minister S Jaishankar, defence minister Rajnath

Singh, along with other senior Indian officials. "The secretary will travel to New Delhi to participate in the 2+2 Ministerial Dialogue, joined by Secretary of Defense Lloyd J. Austin III. The delegation will meet with Minister for External Affairs Subrahmanyam Jaishankar, Minister of Defense Rajnath Singh, and other senior Indian officials to discuss both bilateral and global concerns and developments in the Indo-Pacific," the State Department said.

ET was first to report that the 2+2 ministerial dialogue will be held in India in November. The two sides will understandably discuss Chinese aggression in the South China Sea and Pacific regions. They will also review decisions taken during PM Modi's US trip. The State Department on Wednesday said that Blinken will "advance collaborative efforts to support a free and open Indo-Pacific region that is prosperous, secure, connected and resilient."

IN MIZORAM ASSEMBLY POLLS

Confident of Victory, Will Not Align With Congress, BJP: ZPM

MNF has two faces, one in New Delhi & another in Mizoram, says Lalduhoma

> Bikash.Singh @timesgroup.com

Aizawl: Considering itself a "strong contender" in the upcoming assembly polls in Mizoram, the Zoram People's Movement (ZPM) has said that it will maintain distance from the two national parties - Congress and ZPM - second largest party in the state - is hoping to make it big in the November 7 polls to be held for the 40-member assembly. Showing confidence, 74-year-old ZPM president Lalduhoma, a police officer-turned-politician, told ET, "We are heading for a landslide victory."

Attacking the ruling Mizo National Front (MNF), he accused the party of having two faces, one in New Delhi and one in Mizoram. "MNF is part and parcel of the NDA and Northeast Democratic Alliance (NEDA). It is very clear. That is why they lost their regionality, identity and have become diluted. They have lost their original sanctity as the Mizo Nationalist party. ZPM is the only genuine regional party with a national outlook," the ZPM chief said.

In the 2018 assembly polls, ZPM

had won eight seats. Recently, Congress general secretary Jairam Ramesh had said BJP in northeast India is trying to grab power through regional parties. He said that ZPM and the MNF are well-known to everyone as they are the gateway for BJP to enter Mizoram.

Dismissing the allegations,

'CHANGE NEEDED'

the ZPM president said, "Congress is like a spent force here. Congress says it will form a coalition government with ZPM. Seeing the situation, they cannot say that they will form a government on its own. So as long as MNF is a member of NDA, it is not possible for any other party from here to join the NDA."

The ZPM president added, "We will not join any political formation at the national level. We do not want to be dictated from New Delhi." He said, "BJP, at the most, will get not more than a couple of seats. Last time, it won one seat. It is a hard commodity to sell in Mizoram."

BJP Eyes 'Crucial' Role in Mizoram's Govt Formation

Bikash.Singh@timesgroup.com

Aizawl: Ahead of the assembly elections, the BJP has exuded confidence that it will have a crucial role in government formation in Mizoram. The party has assured the people that the special provision of Article 371(G) of the Constitution will stay, saying it is a permanent clause.

Vanupa Zathang, president incharge of BJP state unit, told ET, "Article 371(G) is not a temporary provision, unlike Article 370 which was a temporary provision. There will be no tinkering with the special provision for Mizoram. We are explaining this to the people of the state." Asserting that the BJP will

wever, a final decision will be taken by

our central leadership." He added that it is baseless to brand

BJP says it is ready to support MNF and ZPM but a decision will be taken by its central leadership

BJP as an anti-Christian party. The Congress had said that Article 371(G) was inserted in February 1987 into the Indian Constitution when late Rajiv Gandhi was the PM to protect the Mizo way of life.

Congress leader Jairam Ramesh had earlier said that it is the greatest contribution of the Congress-led government to Mizoram that is under threat today. "It is only the hand of sensitivity that understands the aspirations of the northeast whereas the BJP wants 'one nation, one language; one nation, one culture; one nation, one religion; and one nation, one party," he had said.

QUEERING THE PITCH

Smaller Parties, Rebels Trouble BJP, Congress in MP's Chhatarpur

Kumar.Anshuman @timesgroup.com

Chhatarpur: Both BJP and Congress are finding it tougher to sail through on a few seats in Chhatarpur district with the presence of rebels and smaller parties. In 2018, Chhatarpur was the only district where BJP performed badly in Bundelkhand. Out of six seats, four went to Congress and one each was won by BJP and Samajwadi Party. In 2020, Congress MLA from Malehra constituency Pradyuman Singh Lodhi and Bijawar SP MLA Rajesh Shukla joined the BJP making it three each in Chhatarpur. The BJP is aiming to retain this number while Congress wants to improve the tally. However, the obstacle for both is coming from rebels and smaller parties. In Bijawar, BJP has fielded MLA Rajesh Shukla while Congress has fielded Charan Singh Yadav. In these communities, Yadav voters are the largest with 38,000 votes.

A 24-years-old Indrapal Yadav from Kodan village says that in 2018, he voted for SP's Rajesh Shukla. "Since he is with BJP, I will vote for Charan Singh. The Yaday community is siding with Congress this time," he says.

But here is the twist. Former BJP MLA Rekha Yadav is contesting on SP ticket to make it difficult for Congress and BJP both. Congress leader Bhuvan Singh Keshu Raja, son of former MLA Bhaiya Raja, is contesting as an independent.

"If Keshu Raja was contesting from Congress, then we would have voted for him. But he doesn't stand a chance as an independent as Tha-kur votes are lesser. We will vote for the BJP," 23 years old Kunwar Ji Raja from Naya Gaon village, tells ET. On Maharajpur seat, rebel Congress candidate Daulat Tiwari is making the contest triangular. Congress has fielded MLA Neeraj Dixit. BJP has fielded Kamakhya Pratap Singh, son of former MLA Manvendra Singh Bhanwar Raja.

"All candidates are coming to us, but we haven't decided. Last

DIFFICULT CHOICES

For voters, choosing between Independents or parties is turning out to be a hard decision time I voted for Neeraj Bhaiya.

This time I am still thinking as all are known to me," 32-years old Rakesh Kushwaha from Dharampura village tells ET.

On Rajnagar seat, Congress MLA Vikram Singh Natiraja won the seat in 2018 by defeating BJP candidate Arvind Pateriya by a meagre 732 votes. This time BJP is hopeful of wresting the seat from Congress. But there is a problem. Former BJP district president Ghasi Ram Patel is contesting as independent from the seat. Both Pateriya and Natiraja are counting on their goodwill in the region. Natiraja is four times MLA and is facing anti-incumbency.

"My entire family has remained loyal to Pateriya. Last time he lost by a small margin. We are working to ensure he wins this time," Pramod Singh Parihar from Hatwaha village tells ET.

Lakshadweep LS MP reinstated 2nd time in a yr; 1st such case

New Delhi: NCP leader PP Mohammed Faizal was reinstated to Lok Sabha on Thursday, making him the only MP in the history of Indian Parliament to have been disqualified and then reinstated twice in less than a year, reports Swati Mathur. The Lok Sabha secretariat's decision to reinstate the Lakshadweep MP comes weeks after SC suspended his conviction in an attempt to murder case, adding yet another layer in the series of flip-flops in proceedings against him since January. On November 1, NCP working president Supriya Sule had written to Birla about Faizal's immediate reinstatement.

Govt: Apple To Cooperate In CERT-In Probe

Pankaj.Doval @timesgroup.com

New Delhi: Apple is set to stand its ground on its "alerts" on "state-sponsored attackers" attempting to hack some iPhones.

With the government following up its announcement to ask the Cupertino-based electronics giant, the iPhone maker said that it is working out a strategy to convey the reasons for its alerts and is contemplating flying executives who specialise in threat notifications, sources said.

"We are assessing the situation and are in constant touch with our headquarters, considering the urgency on the matter and seriousness around it," one of the sources said. "If the need be, we will in-

of 'state-sponsored attacker' tag in its alerts, the sources said that this emanates due to "specific" attempts at hacking. "While it is too early to spell out the specific reasons, one of the criteria that is broadly used to classify any hacking incident as being a state-sponsored attack is when the level of attempted break-in is which can only be carried out by certain specialised agencies that only work with governments... we have clear reasons to mark them as such in our alerts," a source said. On Tuesday, when opposition levelled the snooping charge, the company released a statement where it also conceded that some of the threat notifications "may be false alarms". "Apple does not attri-

The government has moved rapidly on the issue after the alerts created a political furore with opposition parties accusing the government of snooping. The Centre had responded to anti-hacking alerts, by saying that they mark a reflection on the iPhone maker, which should explain why its much-vaunted system could not repulse the attacks. "CERT-In has started its probe... they (Apple) will cooperate in this probe," IT secretary S Krishnan said on the sidelines of an event, stating

ED official, aide nabbed in Raj for ₹15L bribery

Jaipur: Rajasthan's Anti-Corruption Bureau (ACB) arrested an inspector-level officer of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and his friend, a clerk in a local sub registrar office, on Thursday for allegedly accepting a bribe of Rs 15 lakh. The accused ED officer, Naval Meena, is currently posted in Imphal and was in Jaipur on leave. He has been the investigative officer in a ponzi scam case worth over Rs 560 crore against one Sanasam Jacky of Lamjingba Group of Manipur.

Jacky was arrested earlier by the agency in its money laundering case and has been accused of running an alleged fraudulent investment-deposit scheme in which he collected more than Rs 560 crore from over 15,000 people.

The ED sources said it has inquiry constituted an against its officer, pending which he will remain suspended. If allegations are proved right, the officer will face dismissal from service. As per reports, he demanded bribe in exchange for not attaching the complainant's property in Imphal and not arresting him in a chit fund scam case, TNN

PG student found dead with burns at J'khand college

Ranchi: A second-year postgraduate student of the staterun Rajendra Institute of Medical Sciences (Rims) in Ranchi, Jharkhand, was found dead with severe burn injuries on Thursday morning, reports Sanjay Sahay.

The partially charred body of Madan Kumar, who was from Tamil Nadu, was found in the backyard of hostel number 4 of the medical institute-cum-hospital. Kumar was pursuing MD in forensic medicine and toxicology. Police have formed a special investigation team (SIT), headed by a DSP and comprising members from the forensic science laboratory and technical units, to probe the case. Cops are probing if it was a murder or a suicide. "We can reach a conclusion only after the postmortem and the forensic reports come," SSP Chandan Kumar Sinha said.

6 killed as car gets crushed between 2 trucks in Punjab

Patiala: Six people, including a father-son duo, were killed when their car was crushed between 2 trucks in Sangrur district of Punjab on Thursday morning.

The police claimed that the deceased were travelling to their residence, when the accident took place.

The car overtook an oil tanker and crashed head on into an oncoming truck, even as the oil tanker plied into it from the rear, police said. The driver of the oil tanker was injured, while the truck driver fled from the spot. A case has been registered against the truck driver. TNN

Maoists kill 3 ahead of Modi election rally in Chhattisgarh

Raipur: Less than five days before Bastar goes to the polls, Maoists kidnapped and killed three villagers in insurgencyhit Kanker district late Wednesday night, accusing them of working for the police of neighbouring Maharashtra.

Questions are being asked of police as security has been strengthened in all of Bastar in view of the elections, and the PM's visit Thursday...

The victims — Kulle Katlam (35), Manoj Kovachi (22), and Dugge Kovachi (27)—were kidnapped from Chotebethiya village in Pakhanjur, around 250km from Raipur. This region is close to Gadchiroli and the Chhattisgarh-Maharashtra border. Maoist leaflets found on the scene accuse the trio of being informers for C-60, the anti-Naxalite force of the Maharashtra police.

Locals said some unidentified people approached Kulle, Manoj and Dugge on Wednesday evening and sought directions to a certain address. The three helpfully walked with them to show them the way. They were never seen again.

Hours later, some unidentified men went to the village and told the victims' families to "collect their bodies. dumped on the outskirts". TNN

In Mahadev app probe, ED seizes ₹5cr in C'garh

New Delhi: In its investigation against Mahadev app, the ED Thursday made seizure of unaccounted cash of around Rs 5 crore from a vehicle parked at a hotel in Raipur and from the premises of an accused, allegedly carried by a courier to deliver the cash to functionaries of a political party in Chhattisgarh. The cash was allegedly for use in election campaigns.

The ED action was based on an intelligence input that a courier had travelled from the UAE to specially arrange and deliver cash to political functionaries in Raipur. The cash was allegedly moved by the promoters of Mahadev app. A search began in the afternoon and continued till late night. TNN

Cong & Development Cannot Coexist, PM Tells Chhattisgarh Voters

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Raipur: Prime Minister Narendra Modi warned on Thursday that those who indulge in corruption will not be spared. Speaking at a rally in Maoist-hit Kanker district. the PM made a "guarantee": "I tell the youth of Chhattisgarh—no matter how powerful the ones who have looted Chhattisgarh, they will have to return everything."

The PM accused Congress of "promoting dynasty, nepotism, and corruption", and failing to fulfil its promises. "Congress and development cannot coexist. After losing power at the Centre, it is now filling its coffers through corruption in the states under its rule. No one who has looted (the state) will be spared," he said.

that Congress had "abused him" ahead of the 2014 Lok Sabha elections because he is from an OBC community. "Congress betrayed the youth of Chhatthem. The PSC office was transformed into the Congress committee's office, and instead of hiring qualified candidates, they BATTLEGROUND favoured their own CHHATTISGARH relatives and children," Modi claimed.

Over the past five years, the wealth of Congress leaders in Chhattisgarh, in terms of cars and bungalows, has increased, benefiting only them, their children, and relatives, not the poor, the PM claimed. "When you have entrusted me with the task of combating corruption, I am not here to have fun in this position. Modi and BJP are committed to the welfare of your Accusing Congress of insulting tribals, Modi said, "For the first time in the history of the country, BJP chose a daughter from a tribal family as the President. However, Congress objected to this as well. As the opposition, they seemed more concerned about Droupadi Murmu than BJP. Every tribal person in Chhattisgarh should consider it an insult to their daughters and seek retribution against Congress."

"This election is not just about choosing your ministers and chief minister, but about determining the future of your children. I am not here to solicit votes from you. Instead, I am inviting you to attend the CM's swearing-in ceremony after the election results are declared and BJP comes to power," Modi said.

Twenty seats in seven districts of Bastar division. along with Rajnandgaon, Mohla-Manpur-Ambagarh Chowki, Kabirdham, and Khairagarh- Chhuikhadan-Gandai districts, go to polls on November 7.

In Haryana, Shah makes Khattar, BJP workers vow to deliver all 10 LS seats

Ajay.Sura@timesgroup.com

Karnal: With less than six months left for parliamentary elections, Union home minister Amit Shah sounded the poll bugle in Haryana on Thursday from the home turf of BJP's CM Manohar Lal Khattar in Karnal city.

"Mere sath dono hath uthaiye and 2024 mein Modi ji ko phir se pradhan mantri banane ka sankalp lijiye (Raise your hands and take a pledge with me to make Narendra Modi the PM again in 2024)," Shah said. He also made Khattar and state BJP members promise to give all 10 Haryana Lok Sabha seats to Modi.

Amit Shah, speaking in Karnal, targeted the previous Hooda-led government for 'corruption and nepotism' and the Chautala-led government for worsening the state's law and order situation
